

Shops need to spend time and money advertising their business so that people know that they can buy what they need from them. Below are some examples of old advertisements from shops on Bridge Street.

POST CARDS.

Finest Display of
PICTORIAL AND COMIC POST CARDS.
IN LISBURN.

Jewelled Cards, Entitled—
“FROM DEAR OLD LISBURN.”

BOOKS.

Bibles, Psalm Books, Prayer and Hymn Books, all the Leading Papers and Periodicals.

Also Stationery, China, Delph, and Hardware, in great variety. Prices Moderate.

MRS. E. HUGHES,
55 Bridge Street, LISBURN.

THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING IS IN THE EATING OF IT.

Undoubtedly this is the universal opinion of the Public of Lisburn
and neighbourhood when eating

LEATHEM'S PRIME BEEF and MUTTON.

The Epicurean Taste is fully Satisfied, the Quality being all that could be desired, this combined with Lowest Prices is the secret of

LEATHEM'S SUCCESS.

ALWAYS ON HAND A CHOICE SELECTION OF
POULTRY, OX TONGUES, and SAUSAGES.

HENRY LEATHEM, FLESHER,
&c.,
28 Bow Street and 1 Bridge Street, LISBURN.

THOSE WHO HAVE

A FAMILY TO BOOT

Are agreed that the BEST Leather, the BEST Style, the BEST Fit, the BEST Prices, and the Greatest Satisfaction are to be found in the . . .

BOOTS AND SHOES

— SUPPLIED BY —

BLAKELY'S,
6 Bridge Street, LISBURN.

REMEMBER !

Adverts need to be EASY TO READ

&

EXPLAIN
VERY SIMPLY
what the shop offers.

Pretend that you are a shop owner on Bridge Street. On the next page create an advertisement for your shop.

Advertising Bridge Street

