

Describe the Scene

Describe the picture below to your partner. They will have to try and draw the picture using only your description. The better the picture, the better your description has been! Remember don't let your partner peek at the picture!

Describe the Scene

A large, empty white rectangular box intended for writing a description of a scene.