

This is the earliest map of Lisburn. It shows the settlement of Lisnagarvey which is what the area was originally known as. The High street (now Castle Street) led from the castle to the Market Square, where it met Bridge Street, rising up from the crossing point of the Lagan.

Market Place

High Street

Bridge Street

Can you spot these places on the map? Draw an arrow and label each place clearly.

Can you draw a map of your school including all buildings, playgrounds, paths and car parks?

