

A habitat is where an animal lives. It's more than just a home as it includes everything an animal needs to survive.

Pretend you are a wildlife estate agent. Choose a habitat and think of all the features you would like to advertise to attract an animal to this home.

Type of habitat

Who might live here ?

Draw a labelled picture of the habitat you would like to advertise. Remember to include food, shelter and water.

