

All trees grow from seeds.

All trees lose their leaves in autumn.

The fruit of an ash tree is called an acorn.

A pine tree is an evergreen tree.

All birds have feathers

Birds build nests.

Insects have 10 legs.

Invertebrates do not have a backbone.

All living things reproduce.

Living things grow.

Every winter, it snows.

Winter is colder than summer.

November is an autumn month.

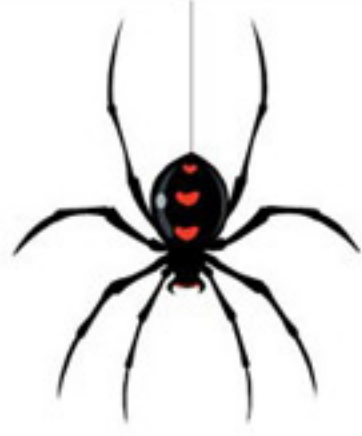

All creatures live at the bottom of a pond.

A worm is a vertebrate.

A spider has 8 legs.

A home of a creature is called a habitat.

Birds only eat seeds.

Plants do not need sunlight.

All energy comes from the sun.